

Nominees May Get Briefings On U.S. Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is reported considering expanding his proposed foreign policy briefings of presidential aspirants to include nominees for the House and Senate.

Johnson has offered to have the Central Intelligence Agency and the Defense and State departments background all generally mentioned presidential nomination possibilities on what course the United States is following and what actions it is taking on various world problems.

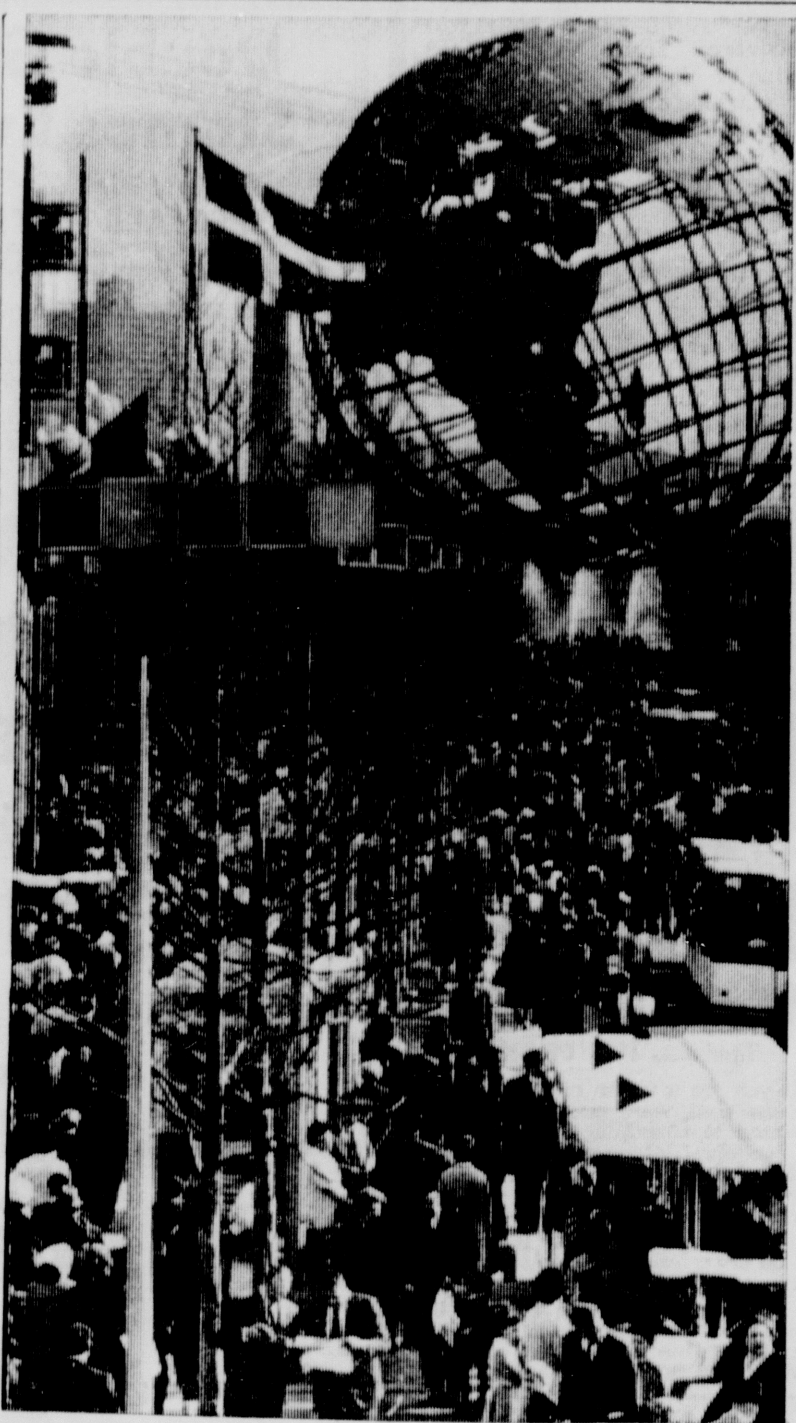

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., a leading candidate for the GOP presidential nomination rejected this out of hand. Some others have accepted, including New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. But Rockefeller said he would accept only with the understanding that the briefings would not tie his hands in future public debate on foreign policy and national security.

Goldwater called Johnson's offer "an offhand political gesture" and said it was basically unwise to provide this information to any other than the actual presidential nominee.

Sen. Warren G. Magnuson, D-Wash., chairman of the Democratic senatorial campaign committee, said there had been discussion of making such briefings available for senatorial and House nominees.

Presumably this information would be similar to the "full account of the existing international situation" which Secretary of State Dean Rusk said would be given to presidential aspirants who desire it.

Magnuson said he thinks it would be practical to bring senatorial nominees of both parties to Washington to brief them in an effort to eliminate misunderstandings during the campaign about the country's foreign policy course.

Cleanup Begins On Over 50 New Bills In Lansing

LANSING (AP)—Lawmakers start mopping-up action today as they try to resolve House-Senate disputes over more than 50 bills.

The bills have passed each house, but in different forms. For any one of them to reach the governor's desk, the latest changes must be approved or a compromise worked out by a special joint committee.

Some amendments merely clarify the intent of the sponsors, such as the new technical language in a proposed law requiring a prescription for the purchase of pargoric.

But in other cases, a whole new concept may have been written into the bill since the house of origin passed it.

Main Issue Buried
The House, for instance, writes an exemption for college fraternities and sororities into a Senate-approved measure making dozens of technical changes in the general property tax act.

The House made 27 other changes, mostly minor, and the exemption was buried in nearly three pages of fine print when the legislation came back to the Senate.

But Friday, Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, spotted it and scolded his colleagues for "another attempt to favor a pet industry." He said the campus social clubs are "just so many commercial enterprises as far as I'm concerned."

He had the question scheduled for debate at today's Senate session.

The Senate wrote language abolishing the fox bounty into a House-approved bill establishing a new bear hunting license.

A bounty repealer had been passed separately by the Senate early in the session but had been killed in a House committee. The amendment maneuver now will allow the question to be debated by the full House.

Packaging Law Revised

Other major bills awaiting House agreement with Senate changes:

—The "truth in packaging" bill, an overhaul of the 50-year-old weights and measures statute which requires an accurate description of the contents on containers of merchandise.

—Two bills asked by Gov. George W. Romney to regulate city income taxes, including a limit of one half of one per cent on non-residents.

—A "Blue Sky" bill which attempts to replace Michigan's 40-year-old securities regulation law with less restrictive provisions.

—Two bills banning trick weapons, such as pistols built to look like cigarette lighters or cameras.

—A bill instructing school districts to release students, at the request of parents, for three hours a week to attend religious instruction.

This last item was introduced by the Senate Education Committee, which tacked the so-called "released time" provision to a routine bill dealing with procedures at teachers' institutes.

Federal Aid Near Billion Asked To Fight Poverty

Slide Blasted; Flood Menaces Mongol Capital

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet engineers have begun blasting in an attempt to drain off flood waters threatening the fabled Mongol capital of Samarkand and villages along the Zeravshan River blocked by a huge landslide.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said engineers sent to the edge of the Pamir Mountains in Southwest Asia Sunday night began blasting a canal through the slide, which was said to be as high as an 80-story building and 2,000 feet wide.

Pravda said 625 million cubic feet of water have built up behind the slide, which on Friday formed a huge natural dam. It said the water level behind the dam rose more than 105 feet in 50 hours.

The Soviet news agency Tass said an attempt would be made to divert the blocked, fast-rising river and remove the threat to Samarkand, an ancient city of blue-tiled old mosques and new industries. It is 1,700 miles southeast of Moscow, near the juncture of the Soviet Union, Red China and Afghanistan.

Tass said the landslide occurred Friday when the Darnovz Mountain "cracked as a result of earth tremors" and was "cut in two by water." The huge mass of earth and rock fell into the river, swollen by a month of heavy rains, and the slide formed a natural dam.

A lake is forming 100 miles upstream from Samarkand, a city of 215,000 persons, but the earth dam threatens to break and unleash a raging torrent.

"This catastrophe is fraught with the danger of an unprecedented flood in the whole of the Zeravshan Valley," said Tass.

Railroad Crew Ruling Stands

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today to review a government arbitration board ruling that could mean ultimate loss of about 48,000 jobs of railroad freight and yard firemen and other train crewmen.

Four railroad operating unions attacked the ruling in two appeals. Today's decision means that the board's ruling stands.

The issues the unions raised were separate from those in the prolonged rail labor dispute in which President Johnson announced April 22 that an agreement had been worked out.

The Supreme Court's refusal to review was announced in a brief order, which gave no reasons. The order noted that Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, former secretary of labor, took no part in the case.

Viet Nam Aid Over 3 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cumulative U.S. aid to South Viet Nam has topped $3 billion in a program now markedly different from any other U.S. aid effort around the world.

The difference stems from its close link with the campaign to stamp out Communist guerrillas. It shows up in ways such as:

1. Top priority on material improvements that will start benefiting South Vietnamese villages this year—not next year or the year after. This contrasts with other programs like the Alliance for Progress for Latin America where economic plans are supposed to be developed carefully with an eye to long-range gains.
2. U.S. willingness to prop up the Vietnamese economy in a general way, not confining aid to selected projects.
3. Use of economic aid funds for antiguerrilla and propaganda support operations, such as providing thousands of special radios and drafting surrender appeals.
4. Scattering U.S. aid person-

Greek Cypriots Launch Attacks On Turk Forces

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—A hundred Greek Cypriot irregulars armed with mortars and machineguns threatened the embattled village of Ayio Theodoros today as U.N. officials sought to remove the village's 800 Turkish Cypriots.

New fighting flared this morning in the mixed Greek-Turkish village 30 miles south of Nicosia. U.N. troops tried to set up a cease-fire.

A showdown also appeared to be shaping up for control of strategic Kyrenia Pass, where Greek Cypriot forces pinned down Turkish defenders dug in around medieval St. Hilarion Castle.

Gimmick Seen In Tax Scale

LANSING (AP)—The Democrats may come up with a campaign gimmick that could impress a housewife with an anti-Republican slogan each time she buys a can of beans.

The idea, which Rep. Joseph Gillis, D-Detroit, says he will suggest to the Democratic State Central Committee, is tied to the legislature's passage Thursday of a uniform scale for collecting the four per cent sales tax.

Gillis wants the scale—the state's first statutory table—printed by the thousands on wallet-size cards bearing the motto: "The Romney-Republican Sales Tax—none of this increase goes to the State of Michigan."

The scale, asked by the Michigan Retailers Association, allows a fractionally higher rate of collection by merchants than a "mathematical scale" favored by Democrats.

"If a merchant sells six 55-cent items," says Gillis, "he can collect 18 cents from the customers under the scale, but he only pays the state 13 cents."

Merchants already are exempted from giving the state sales collected on the first $50 of sales. This is intended to help reimburse them for acting as tax collector for the state.

Hoffa Faces His Third Criminal Trial In Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union, was called to trial on criminal charges today for the third time since taking over leadership of the nation's largest union.

Already under conviction for attempting to rig a jury in another case, Hoffa and seven codefendants are charged with fraudulently obtaining $20 million in loans from Teamsters' pension funds.

A special venire of 100 prospective jurors was on hand for the trial before U.S. Dist. Judge Richard B. Austin. Another 200 have been directed to appear later, if needed.

Attorneys for the government and the defendants have said they expect the trial to last three to five months.

The Teamsters' president and three others were convicted on March 4 in Chattanooga, Tenn., of tampering with a jury during Hoffa's 1962 conspiracy trial in Nashville, Tenn. The Nashville trial ended when the jury was unable to agree on a verdict.

Hoffa has appealed the tampering conviction and is free on $75,000 bond.

The present trial revolves around a 28-count indictment returned last year against the 51-year-old labor leader and seven others. Conviction on all counts could result in penalties totaling 140 years imprisonment and $37,000 in fines for each of the accused men.

They are accused of diverting more than $1 million for their personal benefit while fraudulently arranging loans totaling $20 million from the Central States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund, of which Hoffa is a trustee.

Hoffa, who succeeded Dave Beck as Teamsters president in 1958, has stood trial on criminal charges six times since 1957.

relations between Communist parties."

The Soviets also have proposed a conference of Communist parties, confident that Soviet Premier Khrushchev's views would be upheld over those of Red Chinese party Chairman Mao Tze-tung. Peking has been cool to such a conference.

Despite the Romanian plea for a halt in the verbal hostilities, Moscow and Peking continued to hurl insults at each other.

The official Peking People's Daily charged today that Khrushchev had once supported Leon Trotsky, the arch-heretic of Soviet communism. Trotsky, Lenin's close collaborator and apparent heir, was purged by Stalin and murdered in exile.

The latest Peking attack on Khrushchev was in reply to Soviet attempts to pin the Trotskyite label on the Chinese leadership.

Ruby Rams His Head Into Wall

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Jack Ruby, a lump on his almost bald head from colliding with a cell wall, appears in court today as defense lawyers seek his admittance to a hospital for more mental tests.

Sheriff Bill Decker said the condemned slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald charged head-first against his Dallas County jail cell wall early Sunday in a "deliberate act."

Ruby's lawyers asked a few days ago that Judge Joe B. Brown order him placed in a hospital. The former night club operator pleaded insanity in his March trial, but was sentenced to death.

Under heavy guard, Ruby was sped to a hospital for skull X-rays which a hospital attendant said confirmed the injury was minor.

Decker said Ruby attempted to rip his clothing when he was returned to his cell. The few jail furnishings were then removed from the cell as a precautionary measure, with only a mattress left.

President Picks 2-State Area For Fast Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson worked today on a formal appeal to Congress for his billion-dollar plan of federal help to combat poverty in Appalachia.

The bill to carry out the plan is ready and Johnson hoped to send Congress a message or letter later today enclosing the measure and appealing for its passage. But White House press secretary George Reedy said there was a possibility of delay until Tuesday.

"It is must legislation," Johnson said in unveiling the omnibus bill at a news conference Saturday. He said that the $220 million he is asking for the next fiscal year will not affect the budget because it will be drawn from contingency funds.

Johnson has made Appalachia—a nine-state area that extends from the mountains of western Pennsylvania southward to Georgia and Alabama—a special battleground in his "war on poverty."

He made a rapid and dramatic sweep through three of the states Friday. So convinced did he become of the need for immediate action, he told reporters Saturday afternoon, he "worked through the night and the morning with other officials" to prepare the legislation.

The program is the product of a special commission headed by Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr.

Here's how the nearly $1 billion would be carved up:

- $840 million to build a 2,150-mile highway system.
- $35.8 million for stepping up construction of water resources facilities.
- $10 million to build new sewer and water systems.
- $22 million in federal grants for pasture improvement.
- $6.7 million in technical assistance for timber management marketing and manufacture.
- $3 million for expanded coal research.
- $71 million earmarked for the antipoverty program headed by Sargent Shriver.

Johnson Talks To Trade Group

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson said today that times are good and there is no inherent hostility between business and government. He pledged to businessmen that the government will act with restraint and responsibility.

In return, Johnson asked for restraint from businessmen in decisions which affect the general economic well-being and responsibility in choosing to support or oppose government policies and proposals which serve all the people.

Johnson faced his largest audience of businessmen, representatives of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, in Constitution Hall. In his prepared address, he said that racial and religious discrimination costs more than $15 billion a year and unused or underused manpower costs even more.

"That is why," he said, "this administration is dedicated to lifting of the burdens which weigh down our national productivity, expansion and prosperity."

The President covered a broad sweep of domestic and foreign policy in generalities.

NEW YORK (AP)—New York's 1964-65 World's Fair had a placid, sunny weekend that contrasted with the wet confusion of Wednesday's opening.

Religious services attracted heavy turnouts Sunday morning. Afternoon crowds were thickest in the transportation area where the free programs of General Motors and Ford were star attractions.

Sunday attendance of 200,212—counted up to 1 a.m. today—made a total of 765,908 for the fair's first five days.

The weather was clear and cool. There were few signs of traffic difficulties or congestion.

Tribute Is Paid To Bishop Page

At its 69th annual convention held April 24-25 in Grace Cathedral, Menominee, the Episcopal Diocese of Northern Michigan paid tribute to the Rt. Rev. Herman R. Page, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese since October, 1942. He reaches mandatory retirement age of 72 on May 3.

Bishop and Mrs. Page were presented with gifts from the Diocese and from the Women of the Diocese at the Convention banquet. Resolutions were also adopted thanking the Bishop for his constant efforts on behalf of the Diocese and to Mrs. Page for her invaluable interest, support and assistance.

At the opening service of Convention, Bishop Page challenged the Diocese to rethink and regain the true concept of the mission of the Church. "As individuals we must release the sense of the Kingdom that God has implanted in us and let it come to the surface to produce fruits. Remember that the missionary work of the Church represents its true task," said the Bishop.

The Bishop's address and report to Convention in addition to the report of the Committee on the Address recommending Diocesan action to be taken during the next year will be presented in each church in the Diocese within the next 30 days.

Until the election of a successor to the Bishop, the Ecclesiastical authority of the Diocese will be vested in its Standing Committee. The Rev. Canon J. William Robertson, Iron Mt., is president of this group.

The Standing Committee is acting as a nominating committee to secure a new Bishop. The committee will present a slate of nominees at a later session of this recessed convention to be held in St. John's church, Negaunee. At the present time, the committee is investigating and interviewing possible nominees.

Bishop Page presented the Bishop's Cross for outstanding service to the Diocese to the following: Mrs. John Wilson, Even; Mrs. William Trudgeon and Dr. Sprague Carpenter, Ironwood; Mrs. John Adams, Jr., Sault Ste. Marie; Fred Benette, Wilson; Robert Rafferty, L'Anse; Carl Johnson, Baraga; Lawrence W. Reynolds, Jr. and Newton Cuneo, Ontonagon; Arthur Nancarrow, Houghton; Glenn B. Wilson and Imogene R. Miller, Marquette.

A budget of approximately $70,000 was adopted for 1965.

Mrs. James Fyvie of Manistique was elected president of the Episcopal Churchwomen, Diocese of Northern Michigan, for the coming three years.

Other officers elected and installed were: First vice president, Mrs. Henry Ask, Sault Ste. Marie; second vice president, Mrs. James Hamilton, Houghton; secretary, Mrs. H. J. Skogquist, Gladstone; and a treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd W. Howe, Marquette.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Dale P. Osborn of Cincinnati, Ohio, Provincial Representative to the General Division of Women's Work of the Episcopal Church. She spoke on the "Ministry of the Laity."

It was announced that the women of the Diocese will present a United Thank Offering of nearly $12,000 at the coming Triennial meeting of Episcopal Churchwomen in St. Louis, Mo. This amount has been given over the past three years in daily thanks to God for the many gifts, large and small, He bestows on individual women.

Bishop Page was presented with a check for $1,235, the amount received from the various parishes and missions for the Diocesan Project during the past year. Because that project was not carried out, Bishop Page requested transfer of the funds from last year to the project for the coming year. This will be the help towards the salary of additional secretarial help for the Bishop.

Dates for the Women's Summer Conference are June 15-17.

THIS SCENE, pictured as painters worked near the top of a Mackinac Bridge tower in 1958, will be repeated this summer with the start of a three-year program to paint the 25 acres of steel surfaces of the superstructure of Michigan's "Mighty Mac".

Start Big Paint Job On Big Mac

The pure pollution-free air at Michigan's Straits of Mackinac has been a boon to the Mackinac Bridge Authority. It has not been necessary to repaint the towers since they were painted in 1958. Portions of the approach and suspension spans have not been painted since they were erected in 1956 and 1957.

But this year a general repainting will begin. The sun is to blame. Though beloved by vacationers in northern Michigan, it has finally made necessary at Mighty Mac what many other bridges require every two or three years: a thickening and brightening of the green and ivory colors which protect the steel.

The 47-story-high towers, main cables, and suspender cables will be painted in 1964, the approach spans next year, and the suspension span in 1966.

Most painters would blanch at the thought of using 29,200 gallons of paint to cover every square foot of 25 acres of steel, with most of the work being done from 200 to 500 feet above deep water. Some of the paint will be sprayed, some brushed, and some applied with special mittens.

The painters will be aided by "spiders," appropriately named special scaffolds which propel themselves up or down the huge web of 2 1/4-inch suspender cables which support the suspension span. The spiders also move down the sheer sides of the towers, bringing the painters alongside the steel area to be coated.

Low bidder on the 1964 tower-and-cables painting was Universal Delta, Inc., Elizabeth, Pa. Their contract also includes the 1965 painting of the approach spans, contingent on satisfactory work in 1964. All hiring will be done by the contractors, not by the Mackinac Bridge Authority.

The total cost including paint will be $53,740 in 1964, $215,700 in 1965, and possibly $216,000 in 1966.

No Foul Play In Fire Death

There was no indication of foul play in the death of Seeler E. Kibby, 79, whose body was recovered from the charred ruins of his home after an early-morning fire Saturday.

Prosecuting Attorney Nicholas P. Chapekis said an autopsy was performed by Dr. Arno Whipple, medical examiner, with Police Capt. Joseph Corcoran in attendance. The autopsy was authorized by the prosecutor.

The death of Mr. Kibby was the second by fire in the neighborhood this month. The first was that of Alfred Rouille, 68, whose house burned at 1605 Moline Ave., on April 2.

Police conferred with the prosecutor and suggested that an autopsy be held because of some similarities in the deaths of both aged men. Fire Chief Nels Bergeon pointed out that both men were seated in chairs at the late hour of the night the fires occurred.

Daily Cleared In Libel Suit

MARSHALL (AP) — Citing a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision on a newspaper's right to criticize public officials, a Calhoun County judge has dismissed a $1 million libel suit against the Battle Creek Enquirer and News.

Circuit Court Judge Creighton Coleman held Saturday that a group of former and present public officials had failed to show malice on the part of the newspaper for its criticism of the group.

He quoted from a high court decision that a newspaper is free to criticize public officials as it sees fit as long as it does not act with malice.

Ruling Reversed

The Supreme Court issued the ruling in reversing an Alabama Supreme Court award of $500,000 damages against the New York Times to a Montgomery, Ala., police official. The official contended he had been libeled in an advertisement.

Former Battle Creek city commissioners Stanley L. Brock, Raymond M. Turner and Jack K. Wilson and incumbent commissioner Harry Wilklow Jr. charged libel by the Enquirer and News in a suit filed Aug. 8, 1962.

Each contended he had been libeled in editorials dealing with approval of a liquor license and each claimed $250,000 damages. The four also brought their suit against managing editor Hobart Chipman and editorial writer Hugh Humphrey.

The commissioners had approved issuance of a certain liquor sales license over objections of the commission's own liquor study committee and of the police department.

License Refused

The Michigan State Liquor Control Commission ultimately overruled the commissioners and refused to issue the license. Judge Coleman said the Supreme Court's verdict in the Alabama case emphasized the importance of constitutional safeguards for freedom of the press.

He added: "The editorials did imply that plaintiffs discredited themselves and did criticize plaintiffs as to their vote on the issue in question. This language, however, and implication, is not much evidence of malice, if any. Certainly the newspaper has a right to criticize. "This court hereby finds that even construing the facts and pleadings of the case in favor of plaintiffs, the plaintiffs have not shown malice with the 'convincing clarity' which the 'constitutional standard' demands."

Newspaper want ads are a big sell! Eight hundred million was spent on classified ads last year . . . more than for all television spot announcements or radio advertising.

Girl Who Gave Kidney To Sister Back In School

RICHMOND (AP) — Joan Ottenbacher, who gave up seven weeks of school so her twin sister could live, was expected to resume her sophomore year at St. Augustine High School today.

"I'm glad to be home," Joan said Sunday.

Joan was released from the University of Michigan Medical Center Hospital Friday. She drove back to this western Macomb County community with her father, Peter, a foundry worker in nearby New Haven.

Meanwhile, doctors pronounced identical twin sister Janice "in fine condition," but still have not announced a date for her release.

A complete kidney malfunction endangered Janice's life last February. Joan volunteered the use of one of her own in a difficult transplant operation. The operation, performed March 30, was successful.

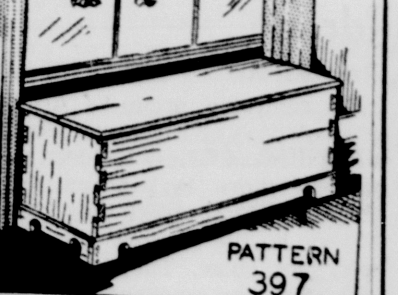

Joan, who plans to become a nurse, said she may have to attend summer school to make up her class work. But there is a lot to look forward to, including a birthday party on June 24. The twins will be 16 years old.

OUT OF THE BLUE

LOUISVILLE (AP) — The new addition to Bob Westmeier's household literally fell out of the sky.

Westmeier was walking downtown when a young canary fell at his feet. It obviously had been flying for some time and its strength was gone.

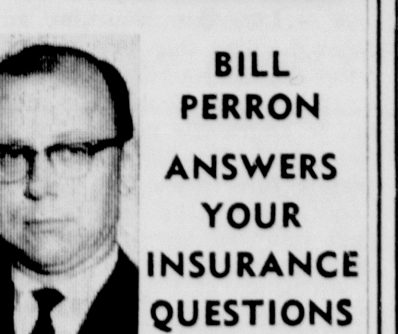

Westmeier pocketed the bird, took it home and warmed it up. In time the canary began to peep a little and, when no one claimed the singer, Westmeier decided to give it a home.

Fatter 'Middle' Needed

One of the incendiary factors causing unrest in underdeveloped lands, and even in some that are relatively advanced, is inequality in income distribution. The rich are very rich and few, the poor are very poor and many.

We of the United States, most of us would agree, have pretty well solved that problem, and through peaceful means.

An exception to that consensus is taken by Herman P. Miller, an economist with the Census Bureau. In a recent study entitled "Rich Man, Poor Man," he tosses out the following statistics:

The top one-fifth of U.S. families receive 45 per cent of the nation's income, only one percentage point less than their share 20 years ago. The bottom fifth, however, is receiving exactly the same as in 1944—5 per cent.

"Our 'social revolution' ended 20 years ago," Miller asserts. Before that, between 1929 and 1944, the top fifth's share went down by eight percentage points and the bottom group's share increased slightly.

He sees signs that there may actually be a widening of the distance between top and bottom, which he fears will be accelerated by the machines that are displacing unskilled and semiskilled workers.

On the other side of the picture, Miller reports that although the percentage shares of the American economic pie have remained the same, the dollar size of those shares has steadily grown, even allowing for inflation.

In 1929, 51 per cent of U.S. families earned less than $3,000 yearly (in 1962 dollars). In 1962, the under-$3,000 group was down to 21 per cent of all families.

It may be that the U.S. has arrived at a more or less permanent percentage arrangement among the rich, the well-off and the poor. Whether or not it is the optimum arrangement is open to question.

But the problem would seem to be less one of shaving percentage points off the top and more one of bringing the lower end closer to the middle in terms of absolute dollars.

It is to upgrade this "poor fifth" of the nation—the 21 per cent earning less than $3,000—that President Johnson has launched his "war on poverty."

Boo Or Cheer-But Go!

This is an appeal to every red-blooded American kid up to and even past the age of 110 to rally around the grand old game of baseball.

It is prompted by persistent reports that baseball is slipping.

Cynics point out that baseball is as much a business as it is a sport. Even so, it is a vital part of the American scene—as American as apple pie and the Fourth of July.

It is a great leveler. It enables us to strike up a conversation with a complete stranger and even get into a mild argument.

It takes our minds off things like household budgets, income taxes and foreign relations.

So let's all go out to the ol' ball park, as the saying goes. If there isn't one handy, we can tune in to a game on television or radio.

Baseball is fine emotional therapy. If we have to get mad at somebody, let it be an umpire!

The Doctor Says:

Ulcers Plague Children

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt.

Ulcers, once considered the domain of beleaguered businessmen, are plaguing children.

Pepic ulcers are more common in infants and children than was formerly believed because it is much harder to recognize in children than in adults.

A child, unfortunately, cannot always describe his symptoms accurately. Also, peptic ulcer symptoms always vary with age.

Often there are no symptoms until a complication such as perforation of the ulcer through the wall of the stomach, intestine or through a large blood vessel occurs. If a blood vessel is perforated there may be a massive hemorrhage through the bowels or vomiting of blood.

Several factors contribute to the cause of peptic ulcers in children. They are seen more often in children with parents who have had ulcers. They appear to be commoner in those whose blood group is O. Boys are afflicted about six times as frequently as girls.

As with adults, ulcers may follow extensive burns, treatment with cortisone group of drugs, malnutrition or a serious debilitating disease. These children are usually more high-strung than their playmates and they often harbor hostile feelings that they may not show. They have a stronger than average need for praise and affection.

Although X-ray examination should be used in the diagnosis, the results are often less definite in a child than in an adult.

However, once diagnosis is made, treatment is often easier than with an adult. One child was cured when his father arranged to spend more time with him. Whatever the factors are that make the child tense, they should be found and corrected.

When medical or surgical measures are required they are the same as for an adult with an ulcer.

Q — For the last four months our 2-year-old son makes sucking noises and seems to be sucking his tongue. We have tried ignoring him, scolding him and diverting his attention but nothing helps. Other habits he has outgrown. Will he outgrow this?

A — Like thumb-sucking and other habits, this one will be outgrown if you don't call his attention to it. Scolding is more apt to aggravate the habit than to stop it. Diverting his attention is fine if you are relaxed about it and if he does not connect your frantic efforts to distract him with his habit. Ignoring it is the best policy.

BARBS

By HAL COCHRAN

During golf days a woman doesn't stop looking for a husband after she's married.

Police took a man who pestered store keepers by insisting on passing pennies for nickels. That a new one, losing one's sense of cents.

For a fat man to go to a smorgasbord is just stuff and nonsense.

An awful lot can be accomplished with soft soap, without adding ammonia or detergent.

"Charge!"

Washington Comment

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — A survey of junior high and high school dropouts made in Arlington County, Virginia, deserves national attention. Arlington is not a deprived area nor a slum, though it does, of course, have some poor families. It has been listed among the top 12 counties in the United States in median family income and has schools ranked among the top in the country.

This particular study was made of 348 students with normal mental ability who dropped out of junior and senior high school in 1962 and 1963. Few of the dropouts came from families "with socio-economic or family cultural patterns different from the bulk of the student body."

The educational level of the parents proved hard to determine. Even with incomplete data, a sizable number of the dropouts were identified as coming from homes where the parents had at least a high school education. Many of these had gone to college.

A "marked proportion" of the dropouts came from home conditions which displayed "varying levels of family breakdown."

Almost a third of the junior high school dropouts had no father at home. A fourth reported "conflict" between their parents. A third reported their parents were indifferent toward the importance of schools.

A sizable number reported parental "alcoholism" and "parental over-indulgence." Half of the junior high boys suffered "inconsistent" parental discipline (one parent lenient, the other strict).

Most of the boys who dropped out of school had what the counselors called a "poor self image," that is, they didn't think much of themselves and their abilities. Forty per cent of the dropout girls had the same problem. Yet their tests had shown they had normal ability.

Almost two-thirds of the dropout boys in both junior and senior high were judged to be emotionally unstable, or to have questionable emotional stability. With the girls, this problem ranged from 25 per cent in junior high to 50 per cent in senior high school.

But only a fifth of the senior high boy dropouts and 7 per cent of the senior high girls were behavior problems. (Some 15 per cent of the junior high girls and 50 per cent of the junior high boys were.)

When asked to list the courses they liked best, the junior high dropout boys mentioned physical education and mathematics most frequently. Junior high girls listed chorus and physical education most frequently. English and mathematics next. Senior high girls mentioned typing and English most often; senior high boys favored shop, physical education and history.

Half of the high school dropout girls said they were leaving school to get married or because they were already married. (School officials are concerned about the growing number of 14-year-olds getting married.)

The dropouts, as a rule, were not involved in school activities. A very high proportion had repeated one or more grades. Few had automobiles.

Sir Alec Gives His Formula To Win Cold Wars

LONDON (AP)—In a slap at Britain's ban-the-bomb movement, Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home says foreign policy results aren't won by "sitting around in damp streets or marching about."

Sir Alec gave his own formula for getting results in the cold war in two political speeches at Slough and Reading Friday.

"You get them by keeping up your guard, retaining your nuclear arms so war cannot break out, and by going to the conference table and insisting that matters of dispute should be settled there," he said.

Douglas-Home said the danger of war with the Soviet Union "is, in my opinion, out." He cited the agreement by the Soviet Union, the United States and Britain this week to cut back on the production of fissionable material for military purposes.

Iron Ore Project At Houghton Tech Gets State Grant

HOUGHTON — The Michigan Legislature has approved a $11,500 grant to Michigan Tech in partial support of a $46,000 project to study a process to improve the grade and structure of conventional Michigan iron ores.

Also supporting the project are the Area Redevelopment Administration (ARA) with a grant of $23,000 and Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. with a contribution of $11,500.

The State grant is one of several made from a special $750,000 fund created for the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion to support research directed towards economic expansion. The year-long research project will be done by Michigan Tech's Institute of Mineral Research, under the direction of John Nigro, research engineer.

Earl Volin, director of the Institute, said a small continuous experimental reactor will be built and several types of Michigan iron ores tested. Depending upon the characteristics of the ores and the processing conditions, reduced agglomerates containing 75-80% iron will be made and tested for blast furnace use.

Reduced agglomerates higher in iron will be made for experimental uses in electric furnaces and cupolas. The Institute has an arrangement with a large upper-midwest manufacturing firm to test some of the higher grade products in an electric furnace.

BRIDGE IS BUGGED

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas highway bridge has been wired for sound in an experiment that may influence the construction of an estimated 28,000 bridges yet to be built on the 41,000-mile-long Interstate Highway System.

More than 100 electronic sensors have been embedded in the experimental bridge to measure the stress and strains set up by the thousands of trucks and automobiles that will roll over it. The Hillsboro, Tex., bridge is a new design structured wholly of reinforced concrete. Crucial to its success are high-strength steel reinforcing bars that sinew the concrete.

Robert F. Baker, director of research of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, said that the high-strength steel reinforcing bars used in the bridge deliver greater strength per pound of metal, thereby reducing the amount of steel required by 30 per cent. He said if the experimental design proves successful, it will enable the government to save an estimated 10 per cent in bridge construction throughout the country.

OPPOSUMS STUDIED

ATLANTA (AP)—Br'er Possum is really very simple-minded.

So simple-minded, in fact, the Emory University Neurophysicists are studying the animal's central nervous system for its rudimentary form.

Dr. David Megirian and Dr. John Manning say the opossum's brain is primitive compared with those of primates or even those of cats. But all the basic parts of the central nervous system are there.

That's why the doctors are studying communication paths between the two sides of the opossum's brain by stimulating different parts of it with electrodes and recording the stimuli on the other side.

Another reason—the opossum elan is plentiful in this region.

Tourists Find No Depression

Vacationists who visit Upper Michigan this summer shouldn't be surprised to find that this North Country isn't as "depressed" as it's been pictured.

In fact, they'll be so impressed by the scenic beauty and other attractions of the region, and so busy enjoying recreational activities, they'll have little time to wonder about economic conditions.

Ken Slater, Hulbert, president of the Upper Michigan Tourist Association, is one who believes a slight economic boom actually is underway.

"Sure, there are problems to be faced and solved—many of them," he said. "But we invite anyone who's heard about this 'depressed area' to come north and see the true state of economic conditions for themselves. In most cases, they'll find things aren't as mad as they had expected; no worse, in fact, than in many other sections of the country."

He pointed to the successful transition in mining operations being effected through construction of beneficiation plants to utilize the huge low-grade iron ore resources, to the expansion programs underway at Northern Michigan and Michigan Technological Universities to provide for growing enrollments, to the big resort and recreational developments in Marquette County, the Copper Country, Ironwood and other areas, to the upsurge in the lumber industry, and to the increase in tourist patronage as reflecting improved economic conditions.

As far as the tourist industry is concerned, Slater expects the 1963 upturn—which had reversed the downturn experienced because of lack of promotional programs in the late 1950's and early 1960's—to continue this summer.

Mongolia Sends Chinese Home

TOKYO (AP)—Mongolia, Moscow's only Asian Communist ally, has asked Chinese Communist technicians to leave the country, the New China News Agency announced.

The first group of Chinese personnel left Ulan Bator by train Friday and got a friendly sendoff, the agency said.

NCNA gave no reason for the expulsion beyond stating: "Under an agreement between the Chinese and Mongolian governments, Chinese personnel began to come to Mongolia in 1955 to help in the country's socialist construction."

"Now they are sent home by the Mongolian government in groups in accordance with the desire of the Mongolian government."

They'll Do It Every Time

Ann Landers

Smoking Called Adult Pacifier

Dear Ann Landers: You wrote, and wisely, that smoking is neither sophisticated nor stylish. You said it can shorten lives, and that it is an expensive and a dirty habit. Why then, do so many people do it? The answer is simple:

A child can suck his thumb and drag around an old blanket. An adult who sucked his thumb and dragged around an old blanket would be left off by a man in a white coat.

So the adult does what is socially acceptable. He sticks a cigaret, or a cigar or a pipe in his mouth. These are pacifiers for adults. These babies don't mind fouling the air of your living room, or an office shared by non-smokers. They care not if they burn holes in their clothing or set fire to their mattresses and burn up the whole family. They are large infants who haven't grown up.

Do you have the courage to print this? I'll wait and see.—UN-ENSLAVED

Dear Un-Enslaved: Your theory is not new and I don't agree that it takes any special courage to print it.

Of course the "Enslaved" will scream like eagles and shout 'Freudian garbage' when they see this but the experts (many of them at any rate) say you are right.

Dear Ann Landers: When you spoke here at the auditorium you said the basis for a successful marriage is communication. I was happy my husband was there to hear you because I've been trying to get that idea across for years but I never knew how.

I decided last night to write down everything he said from the minute he came home. Here is the full report:

Odd Fellows 145 Years Old

The 145th anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in America was observed by Impellant Lodge 460 and Phoebe Rebekah Lodge 179 of Escanaba Saturday evening, April 25, with a family potluck supper and a program.

The dining room was decorated in the colors of the order. The large numerals "145" in silver were centered on one wall with garlands of flowers connecting the Three Links, symbolic of the teachings of the Order: Friendship, Love, and Truth.

Miniature apple trees in blossom centered the serving tables and featured scrolls with the 10 Commandments of good Rebekahs and Odd Fellows written on them.

After the meal a fellowship hour was enjoyed in the lodge room.

The program opened with a Welcome by Noble Grand of the Impellant Lodge 460, Carl Sebeck; acceptance of the welcome and remarks by Noble Grand of the Phoebe Lodge 179, Donna Jane Peterson; flute trio numbers by Escanaba Area High School students, Pam Ten Haken, Kathy Johnson, and Pam Costley; community singing, lead by Mrs. Francis Bolm, accompanied by Mrs. Harriet Carlson.

A brief history of the order was presented by Francis Bolm. Runar Norman read the Grand Master's Proclamation; two solos were sung by Mrs. Donna Jane Peterson, followed by roll call of Phoebe Rebekah Lodge by Mrs. Jennie Wicklander; greetings from out-of-town members were read by Mrs. Doris Pakarinen; roll call of Impellant Lodge by Francis Bolm and greetings from out-of-town Odd Fellows by Runar Norman. Remarks were made by Charles Hammar, who joined in 1911, and he informed members that there are 135 articles now available in the hospital bed program. A new project "Odd Fellow World Eye Bank and Visual Research Foundation" received the support of the order through many donations received.

A closing prayer by Doris Pakarinen and singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds," closed the fellowship hour. Games were played and prizes were awarded for high score at each table. Joseph Wery was in charge of games for the children.

Attendance at the observance was over 100.

Negroes Battle Police Again In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Violence involving police officers and Negroes has flared again in Los Angeles. Police Chief William H. Parker says he expects more.

"And we are prepared to cope with them," Parker said Sunday.

The latest in the series of mob assaults on police occurred Saturday night. Officers said a crowd of Negroes disrupted activities at Central Receiving Hospital. It was the fourth such mob incident in Los Angeles in 10 days.

A policeman was knocked to the floor and a nurse was kicked, officers said. Eleven persons were arrested.

Negroes have blamed previous such incidents to police maltreatment of Negroes, a charge denied by police. Negro leaders say there is a built-up resentment against police in the Negro community.

Library Service Met Most Needs

The Escanaba Carnegie Public Library was one of 277 public libraries in Michigan which participated in the first state-wide survey on public library use ever conducted in the state, according to Genevieve M. Casey, State Librarian.

The survey, conducted during the week of Feb. 10, showed that over a million people use Michigan's public libraries every week, borrowing from collections totaling over 10 million volumes and using the reference and other special services available.

State-wide, the survey showed that more than 615,000 elementary and high school students, or one-out-of-three enrolled in Michigan's public and parochial schools use public libraries every week, in addition to college and university students or one-out-of-three who attend Michigan's 69 colleges and universities. Local results showed that of 1,398 patrons surveyed, 334 were elementary students, 607 high school, and 109 college and university.

Personal Use First

State-wide, over 135,000 men and women in business, industry, communications and the professions plus 140,000 housewives walk into our libraries every week. Other weekly patrons include 20,000 retirees and 8,000 unemployed. Locally, 174 patrons were in business, industry, communications and the professions in addition to 159 housewives, 57 retirees and 5 unemployed.

State-wide, the survey showed that personal use was the major reason most people use the library. School use was second, followed by job-related reasons. Locally, 855 persons used personal use, 832 school use and 58 came into the library for job-related reasons.

The total state picture showed the chief age bracket was the 6-to-18 year olds, followed by men and women in the 22-to-40 age group. Adults 41-to-60 were next, followed by ages 19-to-21 and 61 and older. Lowest age group was the 4-to-6 year old. The results at the Escanaba Carnegie Public Library showed the 14-to-18 had 366, 6-to-13 had 301, 19-to-40 had 220 and over 41 was 243, while 35 4-to-6 year olds visited the library.

Most Satisfied

State-wide, women outnumbered the men by a 60-40 ratio, with some exceptions. The final tally at the Escanaba Carnegie Public Library showed 706 women and 672 men.

Although 74 per cent of Michigan's library users get the materials and information they ask for, 260,000 patrons are unable to get the books, pictures, films, phonograph and tape recordings because many of the libraries cannot afford first-rate collections and the necessary related services. In Escanaba, 1,057 reported they got the material they sought, 250 got part of the material they asked for, and 76 did not obtain what they wanted. Asked about library hours, 1,333 said they were convenient while 59 felt they were not.

In a letter to all libraries whose libraries participated in the survey, Miss Casey extended her appreciation for their cooperation pointing out that "the survey has provided the Michigan State Board for Libraries and the Michigan Library Association with valuable information which documents the need for more financial support for Michigan's public libraries."

Service Clubs To Hear Dr. Harden

Lock Parked Cars, Motorists Told

There have been thefts in Escanaba that might have been prevented if the car owners had locked their autos, and police today asked cooperation of motorists in locking cars when parking them.

Richard Nelson of 1130 N. 18th St., reported to police that a bowling ball, bag and shoes were taken from his car.

Other thefts include the breaking open of a Miller Distribution Co. truck and the theft of malt liquor valued at $24.40.

Robert Mosenfelder

Mosenfelder To Aid Study

Robert Mosenfelder has been appointed Human Relations Coordinator by the Republican party in Delta County. It was announced today by John Walbridge, county Republican chairman.

Walbridge explained that Governor George Romney has urged both parties to appoint coordinators at the county level to assist in implementing the Civil Rights Provisions of the new State Constitution.

The county organization parallels the bipartisan state organization headed by Arthur Elliott, Republican state chairman and Zolten Ferency, Democratic State Chairman. This bipartisan effort is an attempt to keep race relations outside the area of partisan politics.

Mosenfelder came to Escanaba 14 years ago and became owner of Robert's Shoe Store. He had formerly been in the shoe manufacturing business in Chicago.

He and his wife Clara have been active in many community activities including Rotary Club, of which he is now president and the Citizens Council for Better Schools, for which he is past president. He has four children and is a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. McGinn Is St. Catherine's Area Chairman

Mrs. Dennis McGinn, 415 Ogden Ave., Escanaba has been elected by the College of St. Catherine Parents' Committee as the 1964 area chairman for annual gifts to the Parents' Fund at the St. Paul College.

Parents of both past and present students at St. Catherine's have pledged major support to the current capital program being conducted by the College to raise a total of $4 million, which includes a $1 million matching gift under the Ford Foundation Special Program in Education.

The matching gift program has already spurred parent gifts to an unprecedented level. Each gift from a parent or others to St. Catherine's is matched by the Ford Foundation on a 1 to 2 basis. For each parent gift of $10, the College receives an additional $50.

Funds raised in the capital program are to be used toward strengthening endowment for faculty salaries and other needs in the academic program of the College, to meet needs for both endowed scholarships and other financial aids for students, and toward construction of a combined auditorium and fine arts center.

This year's objective of the Parents' Fund is to achieve an increase in both the number and size of gifts.

FLORIDA SHORT CUT—At present the main shipping lanes across or around Florida are the Okeechobee Waterway in southern Florida and the open-water route around Key West. On February 28th, President Johnson pushed a button that got a new cross-Florida waterway under way. Authorized by Congress in 1942, the waterway will be 12 feet deep and 150 feet wide. It will be 107 miles long, from St. Johns River at Palatka to deep water in the Gulf of Mexico near Yankeetown. The waterway will be dotted with five locks so that Florida's ground water will not be affected. Small Newspaper gives close-up view of the project. The larger map illustrates its overall importance as the missing link in the Intracoastal Waterway System.

Outdoorsmen All Dote On Oddities

By LEE SMITS

Every outdoor addict, I suppose, assembles an album of oddities; fantastic happenings that stick in the mind as years roll on; personal experiences, and extra-ordinary things that happen to other people.

My friend, Adam De Martino of Michigan Consolidated Gas Co., is a northern pike specialist. He takes his family along. A De Martino infant observes operations from a bassinet. By the time the child can talk she/he has learned to flop down in the bottom of the boat, out of the way, the instant mama or papa gets a strike.

Adam is not satisfied with hammer-handle pike. He has learned that the big ones want big bait-fish and he shops for "minnows" up to a foot in length. Two rods were in action from the De Martino boat one day last summer. Each line terminated in a husky sucker, close to a foot long. Down went a bobber, and Adam, after giving the fish time to turn the bait around and get a firm hold, sank the barb with a healthy yank. Adam was busy with what proved to be an eight-pounder when rod No. 2 dipped as the bobber went out of sight.

There ensued a mystifying struggle, with Mrs. De Martino in charge of the second rod. Whatever was happening to the fish from one end of the boat was happening to the fish at the other end; a straight run, a dive to the bottom and eventually an endeavor to get under the boat. Eventually a pike was boated, attached to two leaders. The eight-pounder had grabbed both minnows.

My own album of fishing oddities includes a muskie, about a 12-pounder, that grabbed a two-pound bass and wouldn't let go until Jim Kelson was about ready to scoop him into the boat. The bass came aboard, still alive.

Then, out of Fort Lauderdale with the late Square Deal Miller, a bonito put on a weird show as a barracuda chopped it up. A hard run, then slack, then another run until presently there was the cuda, alongside, grabbing at the severed head of what the charter boat skipper said had been a 20 pound bonito. The cuda was harpooned and somewhere I have snap-shots of the bonito head and the cuda, which was the biggest I'd ever seen.

It isn't the memory of the big one—that got away that lingers with any veteran angler you meet, but such incidents as a bat getting hooked on a trout fly or, as happened to me when I was a teen-ager, a mink coming along as I was cleaning a mess of trout and making off with the biggest one.

***

A friend provides me occasionally with copies of "The Shooting Times and Country Magazine", a British weekly now in its 82nd year. Every page gives illuminating glimpses into the hunting and fishing methods of Britain and the ways of British sportsmen.

The author of a department headed Fisherman's Diary signs himself Coridon. To Coridon angling is far more than hauling protein out of the water. He is acutely concerned with every living thing he encounters on a fishing trip.

Coridon reveals that there are grayling in British streams and that they can be caught, on a nymph, in mid-winter!

Excerpts from Coridon's Weekly Survey of Game, Sport and Coarse fishing:

"There are usually two herons on this beat.... A spring of around a dozen teal pause to assess the situation.... Coots paddle off in all directions.... Dabchicks carry on with their feeding. Wrens scold from the undergrowth and only wagtails seem content to share the water with me."

Coridon tells of playing a grayling almost to the landing net when it was seized by a big pike. The pike got away.

"I had better luck," he writes, "with a good trout in a hatch pool one evening. My fly was taken by a quick-rising spud, one of those tiny fish which are almost impossible to hook. Before I could land it the spud was taken by a big trout and in some odd way the hook took hold of the trout and the grayling got away. The trout went into my creel."

Rockets To Lift Huge Payloads

SUNNYVALE, Calif. (AP) — Unprecedented 100,000-pound payloads soon can be hurled into orbit by mass-produced solid rocket motors locked into clusters, says an aerospace expert.

Such loads would be seven times greater than the heaviest the Russians have been known to orbit.

Cylinders of rocket power stacked like tomato cans will be able to lift the 50 tons of useful cargo within three years, Barnett R. Adelman, president of United Technology Center, a division of United Aircraft Corp., predicts.

The center is already producing segmented rockets for the Titan III-C, which the Air Force expects to be a work-horse booster for the next decade of space launching.

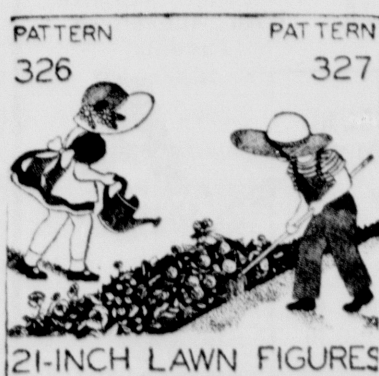

A pair of five-segment motors on the Titan III-C will provide more than two million pounds of lift-off thrust. The vehicle is scheduled for its first flight tests in 1965.

Each steel-jacketed segment of the first-stage booster is 10 feet in diameter and weighs about 50 tons when filled with rubbery fuel.

Clustering rockets isn't a new idea. Last year the center test fired a cluster of 24 smaller solid-fuel segments, four six-motor stacks. Anchored to the test pad, it produced 140,000 pounds of thrust during a 14-second burning time.

The superlauncher would be as tall as a 26-story building and weigh more than seven million pounds.

It would cost substantially less than a launch vehicle of the same payload capacity using an all-liquid propellant, Adelman says.

COLORFUL CUT-OUTS busy at garden chores lend interest to a flower border. The pair shown here are so life-like that they have taken prizes at hobby shows. Patterns 326 for the Girl and 327 for the Boy give actual-size cutting and painting guides. They are 35¢ each. They also are in the Lawn and Garden figure Packet No. 39—a big value $1. ## FLOOD STOPS TRUCK

BUT NOT TELEPHONE REPAIRMAN

While on a service call, Michigan Bell Repairman Clarence Fromm of Saginaw discovered the cause of a dead telephone. It was a small flooded area caused by the Saginaw River overflowing its banks during heavy rains.

Driving along the road to the house through two feet of water, he found he could go no farther. The water was coming up over the floorboards of his truck, threatening to flood the engine.

But this didn't stop Clarence Fromm. Climbing to the roof of the truck, he signaled the man whose phone was out of order. Soon he was being rowed in a boat to the marooned house. Fromm was able to raise the submerged telephone wires to a point well above the water, and quickly restored the phone to normal service.

The customer was understandably grateful for the repairman's persistence. But what Clarence Fromm did is just another example of how Michigan Bell people always try to make sure you get the kind of service you want. They're about as friendly and cooperative as anyone you will ever meet.

Some people seem to feel that prescriptions are outrageously priced. The truth of the matter is this: Last year the average American bought about 3 prescriptions for a total cost of around $7.50. An average of less than $3.00 per prescription. Sure, some drugs cost a lot. So do television tubes—for the same reason. They're expensive to manufacture. New and improved production methods, however, bring prices down. Penicillin, for example, costs only a small fraction of what it did when it first came out. Your pharmacist has a professional knowledge of drugs and can tell you this. They are fairly priced. You get what you pay for. We are always pleased to serve you.

Alston Is Pleased With Young Hurler

By The Associated Press
After pitching himself out of a permanent job with the Los Angeles Dodgers for four years, Phil Ortega has hurled himself into Manager Walter Alston's heart in about two hours.
The 24-year-old right-hander, starting in place of the injured Sandy Koufax, stymied Milwaukee 1-0 on four hits Sunday as the depleted Dodgers won only their third game in 12 starts.

Aussie Wins Golf Tourney

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Bruce Crampton stole Arnold Palmer's script to win the $40,000 Texas Open golf tournament with the greatest come-from-behind performance of the year.
Palmer skipped the Texas Open this time, after winning it three times, but Crampton subbed beautifully for the man with all that money and noted for his stretch runs. Palmer once made up eight strokes.
Crampton, the 28-year-old Australian, shot a closing five-under-par 65 over the 6,715-yard Oak Hills Country Club course to come from a tie for 16th to the championship by one stroke with 273 for 72 holes. He made up six strokes.
Tied for second were Jan (Chili) Rodriguez, a Puerto Rican, and Bob Charles, the left-hander from New Zealand, who wound up with 274.
Rodriguez had a chance to tie for it when he came into the final green seven-under-par for the tournament but he missed a six-foot putt and took a bogey.
Anyway, the Texas Open turned out to be a show for the foreigners—three took the first three places. A foreigner never before had won this oldest tournament in golf.
Crampton's $5,800 first money here gave him a total of $13,361.67 and vaulted him from 23rd to eighth in the list.

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Howard Boston of Mount Clemens, Mich., placed fourth over-all in the spring series of races for Dragon Class yachts. Final races were held Saturday.

The victory, Ortega's first in the major leagues, came at a most propitious time.
This is the fifth season Ortega has had a trial with the Dodgers. Even in the minors he hasn't risen to the expectations others had for him when Los Angeles signed him out of a Mesa, Ariz., high school for a reported $60,000 bonus in 1959.
But now, his 1.20 earned run average is the best the Dodgers have. Before his shutout, he had pitched 6 2-3 innings in relief.
Elsewhere in the National League Sunday, Philadelphia whipped Chicago 5-1, Houston swept past St. Louis 6-4 and Pittsburgh and New York split a doubleheader, the Pirates winning the first 4-3 and losing the nightcap 3-2. San Francisco and Cincinnati were rained out of a doubleheader.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Four Michigan residents are on the All-America skeet shooting team named by Jimmy Robinson, veteran shooting editor of Sports Afield. Ken Sediecki of Detroit and Howard Confer of Baldwin are on the men's team, Florence Schmidt of Royal Oak is on the women's team and Bob Brengle of South Lyon is on the junior team.

'Nice Girl' Is Winner In Golf

AUSTA, a. (AP) — Nice guys, or girls, don't always finish last. Sometimes they win.
Take the case of Marilyn Smith. The 35-year-old golfer, known as "Miss Sunshine" because of her bright smile and friendly attitude on the women's tour, rewrote the record book in winning her second straight Titleholders Championship Sunday at the 6,300-yard Augusta Country Club course.
She finished with a one over par 72-hole total of 289, two strokes better than the four-round tournament record set by Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., in 1955. Miss Smith also set the 18-hole and 54-hole and back nine record for the tournament in four days of what she called "the greatest golfing week of my life." The victory earned $1,300.
She had to beat the Associated Press Woman Athlete of the Year, Mickey Wright of Dallas, Tex., to do it. Miss Smith, who played out of Runaway Bay, Jamaica, nipped Miss Wright by one stroke when Mickey missed an eight-foot birdie putt on the final hole which would have squared the match. Miss Wright was the pre-tournament favorite.

Marilynn, who watched anxiously from the scorer's table a few feet away as Miss Wright lined up the putt, said, "I figured we'd be marching around here again Monday just like we did last year." She beat Miss Wright in an 18-hole playoff in 1963 for her first major championship in 14 years of competition.
Only three previous times has a winner managed to repeat at the Titleholders. These were Miss Berg in 1937-38-39, Dorothy Kirby in 1941-42 and Miss Wright in 1961-62.

Pitchers Pacing Michigan's Team

By The Associated Press
Michigan is sailing along in front of the Big Ten baseball race in a tie with Purdue after the weekend's action. Each is 3-0.
The Wolverines, with their pitchers allowing a total of only 11 hits, swept a doubleheader with Northwestern, 7-1 and 8-1, in making sure of a flying start.
Bill Wahl held the Wildcats to seven hits in the opener and Merlin Pemberton permitted only four in the nightcap, losing a shutout in the ninth inning.
Michigan State lost an opportunity to keep pace with the Wolsecond game 2-1. MSU is now 2-1 in the conference.

In other league play, defending champion Western Michigan became 2-1 in the Mid-American Conference when Mike Boedy blanked Marshall 8-0 on four hits. The Broncos stand 10-2 for the season.
On the other hand, defending champion Central Michigan bowed twice to Northern Illinois in the Ilae, 8-4 and 4-3, and fell to a 0-3 league mark. Northern is 3-0.
Two double-headers were divided in the MIAA.
Calvin defeated Adrian 2-1 in extra innings in the second game after losing 4-3 to Adrian in the opener. The second game went nine innings instead of seven. Roy Woodworth's two-run homer in the seventh won the opener for Adrian.
Albion came back to defeat Olivet 1-0 in the second game as Larry Colburn's two-hit pitching after Olivet won the first game 8-7. Tom Alberts of Olivet also allowed only two hits in a duel with Colburn in the second game. Colburn struck out 15 men in the seven-inning contest.
Hillsdale invaded Detroit and got bumped twice by the University of Detroit, 5-4 and 8-3.

Spartans Show Better Offense

By The Associated Press
Michigan State's football team showed an improved offense, while Michigan players looked "only fair" in practice games Saturday, according to reports from their coaches.
MSU Coach Duffy Daugherty commented after the varsity walloped the reserves 57-7 in a 2½-hour scrimmage at Spartan Stadium. Junior left half Dick Gordon and freshman left half Clinton Jones each scored three touchdowns for the varsity.
At Ann Arbor, the first string Michigan Blues defeated the reserve Whites 54-18 with junior halfback Tom Brigstock of Battle Creek scoring four times for the Blues.
"Generally speaking, it was an up and down scrimmage with some bright spots and some bad bumps," said Michigan Coach Bump Elliott. "The hitting was not as sharp as it has been and it's very evident we have a lot of work to do."

New Yorkers Snare Crown

TORONTO (AP)—Jim Jacobs of New York and Mort Leve of Chicago teamed to win the double title in the Canadian open four-wall handball championships Sunday. Jacobs and Leve turned back Mickey Unroth and Harry Tepperman of Toronto 21-13, 21-2.
Johnny Sloan of Chicago beat Pat Kirby of New York in the finals of the Canadian open singles 3-21, 21-11, 21-12.
More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Tough Relief Spot For Chisox Rookie

By The Associated Press
It's a long way in from the bullpen at Chicago's Comiskey Park. Plenty of time for a relief pitcher to size up the situation. And you can bet young Frank Kreutzer was doing some fancy sizing up when White Sox Manager Al Lopez waved him into his fourth big league game.
Lopez, renowned for his handling of pitchers, picked quite a spot for the rookie left-hander in Sunday's game against Boston. The Red Sox were leading 1-0 in the second inning and the bases were loaded with one out.
All Kreutzer had to worry about was the defending American League batting champ, Carl Yastrzemski, who was the next batter, and the league's leading hitter, Frank Malzone, who was on deck. You could forgive Lopez if he shuddered just a bit.
But the youngster didn't cringe. He fanned Yastrzemski and got Malzone on a grounder. End of threat and start of 5 2-3 innings of airtight relief.
Kreutzer, who won his first big league game, allowed just three hits before leaving for a pinch hitter in the seventh. He fanned four.
Elsewhere in the American League, the struggling Yankees finally reached the .500 level with a 5-4 victory over Baltimore; Minnesota nipped Detroit 3-2 in 11 innings; Los Angeles snapped a five game Cleveland winning streak 7-0 and Washington downed Kansas City 7-4.
In the National League, Los Angeles edged Milwaukee 1-0; Houston whipped St. Louis 6-4; Philadelphia whacked Chicago 5-1 and New York and Pittsburgh split a doubleheader with the Pirates taking the opener 4-3 and the Mets winning the nightcap 3-2. The Giants and the Reds had a doubleheader postponed in Cincinnati because of rain.

The Yankees evened their record on three unearned runs, the final one coming when catcher John Orsino, let a Harvey Haddix knuckler get by for a passed ball in the eighth inning. Hal Reniff was the winner in relief of Whitey Ford.
Jerry Lumpe's wild throw with the bases loaded and two out in the 11th inning gave Minnesota a victory. Jim Kaat went the distance to win it. Bob Allison and Jimmie Hall homered for the Twins.

Don Zimmer crashed two home runs and Bill Skowron socked another as Washington built an early lead against Kansas City. Rocky Colavito, Jim Gentile and Manny Jimenez homered for the Athletics.
Fred Newman, who had been sidelined for a month with infected tonsils, blanked the Indians in his first start. Tom Satriano slapped three of 12 Angel hits and drove in three runs as Los Angeles handed Cleveland its first setback since opening day.

Toronto Claims Third Straight Hockey Crown

TORONTO (AP)—The never-say-die Toronto Maple Leafs are Stanley Cup hockey champions for the third straight year after a brilliant rally in the playoff finals.
Toronto, two games away from the title after dropping a 2-1 decision on its home ice last Tuesday, capped the comeback with a 4-0 victory over the Detroit Red Wings in the deciding game Saturday night.
Toronto Manager - Coach Punch Imlach, who stuck to a rigorous training schedule throughout the playoffs while the Red Wings rested between games, was high in praise of his players.
"They showed all the signs of true champions. Bob Baun, Carl Brewer and Red Kelly all had needles to deaden the pain of their leg injuries, and then they told me they all wanted to play," Imlach said.
Kelly, Dave Deon and George Armstrong sent the puck into the Detroit net in the third period to take some of the pressure off goalie Johnny Bower, who was engaged in a struggle with rival netminder Terry Sawchuk.

Until that last period flurry, Andy Bathgate's tally on a breakaway with the game a little more than three minutes old was the only goal of the game.
Bower and Sawchuk each kicked out 33 shots. Bower was at his best in the waning minutes as the Maple Leafs closed out by playing shorthanded for 3½ of the last 4½ minutes.

O'Hara Lacks Indoor 'Zip'

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) —Tom O'Hara says he hasn't regained the "zip" he had when he was cracking indoor mile records last winter.
But the missing ingredient wasn't obvious to Drake Relays fans who saw the little Loyola of Chicago senior uncork a 56.8-second last quarter to win an invitational mile run in 4:01.
Making his first outdoor race of the year, O'Hara plodded along in fourth place most of the race, and never led until he flashed past John Camien of Emporia, Kan., State on the final curve.
His time, far off his indoor best of 3:56.4, was more than four seconds under the Drake record. However, he lost a chance to become the fourth in the 55-year history of the Relays to win two "outstanding athlete" awards.
The 1964 honor went to Gayle Hopkins of Arizona, who set two records and strengthened his bid for a spot on the U.S. Olympic track team.
Hopkins took the broad jump with a leap of 26-2 and won the triple jump with 51-8, best mark in the nation this year.
Both leaps were a foot better than Hopkins had done previously in the two events.

Eskymos Top Manistique In Opening Track Meet

JIM CLAIRMONT churns home ahead of the pace in the 440 yard dash in the dual meet between Escanaba and Manistique at Manistique Saturday. Clairmont gave the Eskymos a first place with a time of 57.3 seconds. (Christensen Photo)

MANISTIQUE — The Escanaba Eskymos scored an impressive victory in their first outdoor track and field meet of the 1964 season here Saturday, whipping the Manistique Emeralds 91½ to 26½.

The defending Great Lakes Conference champs, coached by Henry Wylie and Jerry Cvenegros, scored 11 firsts and tied for another. Two races were run in the quarter mile because there were 13 runners. Eskymos won both of them.

Escanaba displayed individual strength and balance in both the track and field events. The Eskymos scored points in every event and swept the 220 yard dash.

Capturing firsts for the host Emeralds were Mike Gray in the mile and Gary Orlich in the half mile. Rodney Weber tied for first in the low hurdles with George Hansen of the Eskymos.

Senior Wally Schultz gave the Eskymos a double victory. He won the 220 yard dash in 24.5 seconds and sailed 19 feet 10¼ inches in the broad jump. He also finished third in the 100 yard dash and ran the anchor leg on the winning half mile relay team.

Junior sprinter Chuck Brooks ripped off a fast 10.35 in the century, finished third in the 220 and ran with Schultz, Jim Clairmont and Dave Boileau on the 880 relay team.

Boileau and Clairmont won both races in the 440 yard dash, with Clairmont's time of 57.3 the best of the two.

Other Eskymo athletes winning their specialties were Tom Bjorkquist in the high hurdles, Sam Oslund in the pole vault, Jerry Collins in the high jump and Bill Sarnowski in the shot put.

The Eskymos will return to action with a dual meet against the Marquette Redmen at Escanaba Tuesday. The meet will start at 4:30 p. m.

Tigers Second; Lary Will Open Series At K.C.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The second place Detroit Tigers open a three game series against the Kansas City Athletics here Tuesday night.

Manager Charlie Dressen, who watched his team lose a tough 3-2 decision at Minneapolis Sunday, chose Frank Lary to pitch. Mickey Lolich and Hank Aguirre are expected to pitch the other two games.

Jerry Lumpe's wild throw on Vic Power's infield dribbler cost the Tigers a sweep over the Minnesota Twins Sunday. The Tigers won two out of three in Minnesota, and stand 6-4 for the season. Cleveland, now 5-2, is first.

Lumpe's throw came with two out and the bases loaded in the 11th inning.

"It was one of those do or don't plays," explained Lumpe.

Drake Relays Tops In Track

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — This is one of those years when the only real winner in the comparative count down after the Penn and Drake Relays is Uncle Sam.

This is an Olympic year and the old gent in the Red, White and Blue suit rubs his hands with satisfaction over good performances whether they be in Philadelphia or Des Moines.

The actual count in 19 comparative events was 12-6 in favor of Drake. The athletes at Des Moines turned in faster times in eight track events and better distances in four field events.

Vince McArdie of Manhattan won the 400-meter hurdles at Philadelphia in 51.5, and Bill Hardin of Louisiana State the 440-yard hurdles in 51.7 at Drake, a standoff in view of the fact the Penn event is a few strides shorter.

Villanova became the third team in the history of the 70-year-old Penn Relays to win four major relay events at this oldest and biggest track and field annual of its kind. But the Wildcats were outrun in three of the four events by their Drake counterparts. Villanova took the four-mile relay in 16:50.7, faster than Missouri's 16:52 at Drake.

In the sprint medley, however, Texas Southern's Drake time of 3:19.8 was better than Villanova's 3:23.4; Missouri turned in a 7:20.6 time in the two-mile relay to 7:31.7 for Villanova, and Western Michigan's 9:51 for the distance medley outdid Villanova's 9:55.8.

Regan's record is now 1-2.

Gladstone Wins In Triangular; Moss Standout

GLADSTONE — The Gladstone Braves captured their second straight track and field victory here Saturday, edging Rapid River for top honors by winning the final event of the meet. Rock finished a distant third in the point standings.

Coach Jim Hinn's track team trailed by one point entering the final event, the mile relay. Al Howes, Keith Burch, Gary Englund and Bruce Ellison teamed up to win the event, giving Gladstone 64½ points to 63½ for Rapid River.

Individual standout of the meet was Rapid River's junior star, Doug Moss, who copped four firsts. He won the broad jump, high jump, low hurdles and high hurdles. Gladstone took the other nine first places.

Emery Dault broke his own Gladstone school record in the shot put with a toss of 48 feet 1 inch. The other Gladstone cindermen scoring firsts in the meet were Keith Apelgren in the pole vault, Mike Gobert in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Bruce Ellison in the half mile, Bob Randall in the quarter mile and Gary Englund in the mile.

Two Teams Tied For First Spot In Big 10 Race

CHICAGO (AP) — Michigan and Purdue are tied for the Big Ten baseball lead after the opening weekend of play in which each team scored three straight victories.

The Wolverines opened with a 6-0 victory over Wisconsin Friday, then thrashed Northwestern 7-1 and 8-1 Saturday. Purdue edged Minnesota 3-2 in its opener, then belted Iowa 6-4 and 3-0.

Minnesota rebounded from its Purdue loss with a double victory over Illinois, 4-2 and 6-2, dropping the defending champions into the cellar.

Indiana exchanged one-run decisions with Ohio State Saturday, winning the first game 5-4 and losing the nightcap 4-3. Wisconsin outslugged Michigan State 9-8, but lost the second game 2-1.

Bill Wahl and Merlin Pemberton gave Michigan route-going performances with Wahl allowing seven hits in the opener and Pemberton stopping the Wildcats on four hits in the second game.

Sophomore Steve Cunningham, one of three pitchers used by Purdue in the opener, was credited with the victory.

Creighton Burns blanked Iowa on five hits in the second game.

Illinois' hopes to a third straight tie were all but eliminated following three straight losses. The Illini were limited to two hits by Minnesota right-hander Joe Pollack in the first game and then blew a 2-0 lead before bowing in the nightcap.

Michigan State remained within one game of the lead by coming from behind in the second game of its doubleheader with Wisconsin. Three singles in the seventh inning of the nightcap gave the Spartans a run and their margin of victory.

Ohio State blew an early lead and lost to Indiana, but the Hawkeyes retaliated in the second game and came from behind for a one-run victory.

Boston lost the lead it had held since the second period early in the final quarter against the persistent Warriors, then regained the edge. Retiring co-capt. Frank Ramsey got the winning point on a free throw to make the score 100-92.

But Walt Chamberlain cut the lead to two points, 101-99, with 19 seconds left. Russell dunked a Tommy Heinsohn miss with 12 seconds left to settle the issue.

Russell played the full 48 minutes, had 26 rebounds, 14 points and six assists. Heinsohn scored 19 while Ramsey and Sam ones contributed 18 each.

Chamberlain got 30 points, 18 in the second half, and scrappy, little ay Rodgers had 19.

MANISTIQUE

LELAND R. ANDERSON, district fisheries supervisor for the Conservation department is shown with a walleyed pike taken in a trap net at Portage Creek in first sets of the nets Thursday for a private fish hatchery constructed by Curtis area residents to improve fishing. Water was 45 degrees in the creek when this walleye was caught. The fish will have sperm and eggs stripped from them, and the fertilized eggs will be kept in 10 jars in the hatchery until they reach "eye" stage. The process will greatly improve the percent of the walleye eggs hatched. The Department of Conservation does not stock fish when natural reproduction is occurring. Curtis residents want more walleye, noting tourists particularly look for this species. The fish will be planted in the Manistique lakes. On the bank are Sherwood Moore, an onlooker and K. C. Clark, one of the residents working on the project.

Pike Hatchery Built At Curtis

By ROSE LACHAPPELLE

CURTIS — Walleyed pike in Manistique Lakes should have more company in the future, if a project of Curtis area residents is successful.

With Conservation Department assistance, the group has constructed a private hatchery on banks of Portage Creek and will keep fertilized fish eggs there three weeks, to bring them to "eye" stage before they are planted in the Manistique lakes.

First setting of nets in the cold waters of the lake area was Thursday with Leland R. Anderson of Newberry, district department fisheries supervisor aiding.

Walleyed Preferred

The hatchery has an elevated tank into which an electric pump will raise water from the Creek. From the tank it will flow into 10 glass jars, purchased at cost of $30 each, which will hold sperm and eggs stripped from the fish caught in trap nets.

Normally, biologists feel a one per cent hatch of the half million eggs a walleye will lay would be good. However, with

Ciscoe Cysts Are Analyzed

NEWBERRY — The parasitized (grubby) ciscoes caught in the Big Manistique Lake in the past years have been analyzed by Dr. Leonard Allison, fisheries pathologist at the Grayling hatchery, reports Leland R. Anderson, district Conservation fisheries supervisor.

The parasite is not infective to humans, even if the stage in fish is eaten alive. When, cooked, the parasite may taste even better than the fish, it is noted.

The parasite has been important commercially in Canadian lakes, where ciscoes and whitefish are caught for market. Fish have been so heavily loaded with these that people refuse to buy them. Much research on the biology of T. Crassus was done in Canada, and methods of control were tried. In the laboratory pH 5 killed the expelled eggs but an experiment in a lake failed to control the infection. An attempt to control the infection by poisoning a lake was made.

Said Dr. Allison: The ciscoes from Big Manistique Lake in Luce and Mackinac counties caught March 12, 1964, contained cysts (plerocercoids) of the tapeworm Triaenophorus, probably crassus. This tapeworm matures in northern pike. When eggs of this type are expelled from the pike, they are eaten by Cyclops bicuspidatus (water flea) where they develop into a proceroid. The ciscoe eats the infected Cyclops and the proceroids migrate to the muscle tissue where they grow into a plerocercoid. The plerocercoids develop in the fish in July, stay 3-4 years, then dry up or are reduced to calcareous nodules.

Christian Talks With Kenya Lady Planned Here

Mrs. Stephen Cauri

Twenty-five Manistique women representing area churches will participate in a Bible based conversation group on "The church in the world."

Mrs. Stephen (Florence) Cauri, of Kenya, Africa will be the overseas guest for the four sessions to be held April 30, May 7, 14 and 21. The interdenominational conversation sessions will be held at 1:30 p.m., each Thursday. The April 30 meeting will be in the Presbyterian Westminister Hall. Topics are "What it means to be the church," living under the pressures of a nuclear and fast-changing age, racial needs and problems, and the family and youth.

Mrs. Cauri is one of five women from other countries who are guests in four community conversation groups of Christian women in the United States in April and May. She is active in her own church and has organized local women's societies. Her husband, a theological seminary graduate, served as parish minister before he came to the U.S. for study at Princeton theological seminary. She is a trained nurse, and mother of three children.

Manistique women from all churches are meeting to share the experiences and Christian thinking of American women with one from one of the newest nations, so she can return with a better understanding of America, its families and Christian church.

Mud Expected In Derby Trial

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Hill Rise, the 8-5 favorite to win the Kentucky Derby, never has had a race in the mud, but it looks as if he will get his chance to see what he can do on an off track in Tuesday's Derby Trial Stakes.

The El Peco Ranch colt is expected to meet six or seven other Derby hopefuls in the one-mile trial—the last prep for Saturday's $125,000-added Run for the Roses.

The Trial should prove a real test for the impressive California campaigner if the track is off—and the Weather Bureau said showers which began falling in Louisville Sunday would continue through tonight. There's no chance for Hill Rise to duck the Derby Trial if the track is off because he has had but one race in the last two months, and was an unimpressive and sluggish winner in that one.

Bill Finnegan, the ageless trainer of Hill Rise, points out that he's been so lucky so far that he has no idea what his colt can do in the mud.

Meantime, a field of at least 15, and possibly as many as 18, could go postward in the big race.

Besides Hill Rise and North- ern Dancer, the probable field looks like this: Quadrangle, Dandy, The Scoundrel, Mr. Brick, Roman Brother, Prince Davelle, Royal Shuck, Ishkoo- Swell, He's A Gem, Admiral's Heart and Clem Pace.

Mr. Brick, with blinkers off for the first time, beat The Scoundrel by one-half length in Saturday's Stepping Stone at seven furlongs. Dandy, who stumbled and almost fell leaving the starting gate, was a fast closing third.

The surprise of last Saturday's feature races was the set-back of Mongo and Gun Bow in the $82,350 Gray Lag Handicap at Aqueduct. They had been expected to dominate the race but it was Saidam, making his first start of the year, who romped off with the honors.

Garden State Park opened the New Jersey season with Big Pete taking the $27,600 Delaware Valley Stakes by 1½ lengths over National.

NO CHANGE — A salary squabble doesn't seem to have affected Rocky Colavito as he takes his licks at batting practice with the Kansas City Athletics.

Girl, 8, Talks For First Time After Operation

PETOSKEY (AP) — Eight-year-old Beth Adams is talking normally for the first time in her life.

An operation for removal of growths on Beth's vocal cords and a new vaccine treatment are responsible.

Nine previous operations had failed, and Beth, one of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Adams, never had been able to speak above a whisper.

Beth was born with the growths.

The most recent operation was conducted last fall at Children's Memorial Hospital in Chicago. Vaccine treatments followed.

Beth talks now, with a slight huskiness in her voice.

Everybody is happy about it. At school, Beth's third-grade lets her have extra out-loud reading time. At home, sister Virginia, 12, and brother Gary, 13, listen to her in delight.

NO. $4.60 PRICES

NEW YORK (AP)—Broadway's usual price scale is being revised into an even-money affair by the management of "Fair Game for Lovers." Ticket prices have been trimmed down to the nearest dollar.

"It's the time we tried to make it easier for the buying public," explains producer Herbert Swope Jr. "Eliminating the change is a first step. It lowers prices a little and makes for quicker service at the box office."
